b) Cleaning Contractor: No report received – due to accident.

c) Grounds Care Contractor: Report received (post meeting): as follows-

We have cut all areas within the parish hall, we will spray weeds first visit in April as spring is encouraging more growth.

The Park

We have cut both the large park and strimmed the green and they are now consistently short. We also continually cut around the fence line of the park so all the grass is the same height. We have continued to kept an eye on any rubbish being left by visitors, anything we have found in put in to the bin. We are also keeping the grass within the children play area short. we have removed any stinging nettles that is going through the fence.

The Green

We have cut the green.
All areas have been kept short.

Our next visit is scheduled for week commencing April 1st.

H92) Play Equipment: To discuss and decide on quote received for the repair of certain items.

It was agreed that Cllrs should carry out a site visit on Thursday 28th March commencing at 6.15pm. In order to assess the situation before a decision can be made as regards to the quote.

H93) Stunted Tree in Parish Hall car park: To discuss and decide on removal of tree and replace with suitable alternative.

It was agreed that the tree should not be removed. Cllr John Keate has agreed to chop out the ivy and let the tree dry out.

H94) Parish Orderly retirement: To discuss and agree giving a thank you gift for service to LPC.

It was agreed that vouchers to the value of £100 should be given as a gift. This will be paid out of Chairman's allowance
